Principal's Message

With school finishing for students next Wednesday, this will be the last Broadcaster edition for 2012. There are only a few items left in our school year. The Year 6 Farewell will be held this evening at Ingleburn RSL and both staff and students are looking forward to attending.

Student reports will be sent home on Friday. Teachers have spent many hours finalising assessment data to write comments that are reflective of each child’s achievements over the course of the semester.

Thank you to families who attended our Carols Night last Wednesday and the Celebration of Learning yesterday. Congratulations to all the students who received awards for achievement, citizenship and effort. The 2013 school captains were announced at this assembly and I congratulate the Glenfield students for electing such quality school leaders.

The 2013 school captains are A. Campbell and K. Haynes. The vice captains are M. Bautista and S. Thanh. Thank you to Ms Batros for organising the elections and to Ms Warianka for assisting in counting the votes.

Sadly we say farewell to three of our wonderful teachers as Miss Schroder, Miss De Giorgio and Miss Coloumbis have accepted teaching positions closer to home.

I would like to publically thank these ladies for their excellence in teaching and for their commitment to our school, particularly in the area of creative arts.

The “Hairspray” item that featured in yesterday’s assembly is testament to their creative talents.

Thank you ladies for making our students stars. You will be missed by everyone at Glenfield.
